

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had talks today, on the fringes of the 73rd UNGA, with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kyrgyz Republic, H.E. Mr. Erlan Abdyldayev.

In the cordial talks, the two sides noted that the bilateral relations between the two countries are on a very high level and that there is full mutual support in the international organizations.

Ministers Dacic and Abdyldayev agreed on further coordination of mutual activities and offering of mutual support as well as on the exchange of high level visits.