

Flights to Moscow and Warsaw are planned to take off today and repatriate Serbian citizens from these cities, while the flight to Moscow will also be used to return Russian citizens from Serbia to their country" , First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic said in a statement for Tanjug news agency yesterday.

Air Serbia flights to Berlin and Frankfurt were also organized yesterday boarding 144 passengers, 12 of whom were medical workers returning to Serbia.